

Meet the author

Jione Havea

Jione Havea is a native Methodist pastor and liberation critic from Tonga.

A prolific author, he is the brains behind the Council for World Mission's Theology in the Age of Empire project bringing forward theological reflection from beyond the West.

You can meet him at Queen's on Sunday 15th May, at 4pm in the Handsworth Room. You are welcome.

Sunday 15th May, 4pm | Handsworth Room

The Queen's Foundation
for Ecumenical Theological Education

Jione teaches at Trinity Methodist Theological College, Auckland, Aotearoa New Zealand, as well as being research fellow with the Public and Contextual Theology Strategic Research Centre, Canberra, Australia.

His recent publications include:

- ___ Bordered Bodies, Bothered Voices: Native and Migrant Theologies (ed.; Wipf & Stock 2022)
- ___ Bible Blindspots: Dispersion and Othering (ed. with Monica Jyotsna Melancthon; Wipf & Stock 2021)
- ___ Doing Theology in the New Normal: Global Perspectives (ed.; SCM 2021)
- ___ Losing Ground: Reading Ruth in the Pacific (SCM 2021)
- ___ Theologies from the Pacific (ed.; Palgrave 2021)
- ___ Jonah: Earth Bible Commentary (Blommsbury 2020)
- ___ MEDIAting Theology (ed.; Lang 2020)
- ___ Theological and Hermeneutical Explorations from Australia: Horizons of Context (ed.; Lexington 2020)

He is also the editor of the five volume Theology in the Age of Empire for the 'Discernment and Radical Engagement' (DARE) programme of the Council for World Mission:

- ___ Mission and Context (ed.; Lexington 2020)
- ___ Vulnerability and Resilience: Liberating Body Theologies (ed.; Lexington 2020)
- ___ People and Land: Decolonizing Theologies (ed.; Lexington 2019)
- ___ Scripture and Resistance (ed.; Lexington 2018)
- ___ Religion and Power (ed.; Lexington 2018)

In addition to many other publications of his own, he also oversees the series International Voices in Biblical Studies for the Society of Biblical Literature.

