

"Race, Worship, and Culture in the African Diaspora"

A Panel Discussion

Thursday 13 October 2022 | 14.00 - 16.00 (UK)

Dr Dulcie Dixon McKenzie
Queen's Foundation

Dr Pauline Muir
Goldsmith's University

Dr Monique Ingalls
Baylor University

A Black History Month Event

A hybrid seminar for all, with local and international participation of students at Queen's Foundation (UK), the Nigerian Baptist Theological Seminary (Africa), and the Church music project at Baylor University in Texas (USA). Panellists will discuss how this theme connects to their own life histories and scholarly pursuits, followed by a discussion on how music and worship in the church plays into race-based conflicts and conversations.

Venue

Frances Young House (Lecture Room)
Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education
Somerset Road, Birmingham, B15 2QH

To attend online

Please register in advance. Email cbtadmin@queens.ac.uk or see the events page at www.queens.ac.uk

